The current 'Best Efforts' policy of NPLA-PAC is as follows:

All requests for PAC donations include a conspicuous, underlined, all capital letter message that states, 'FEDERAL LAW REQUIRES POLITICAL COMMITTEES TO REPORT THE FULL NAME, MAILING ADDRESS, OCCUPATION AND NAME OF EMPLOYER FOR EACH INDIVIDUAL WHOSE CONTRIBUTIONS AGGREGATE IN EXCESS OF $200 IN A CALENDAR YEAR.'

If this information is missing from any donor who has given in excess of the $200 per calendar year threshold they are sent (within 30 days) a 'Best Efforts' thanking them for their contribution and requesting the missing information, without soliciting a contribution. The donor is advised of the Federal Election Law requirements and provided with a response page which includes the same message as above, blanks for the requested information and a business reply envelope.

All responses to these requests are listed on an amended schedule A of the next report filed after they are received, notated with an identifying memo.
